

23 Mach es anders!

Rewrite the sentences changing the direct and indirect objects to pronouns. Change the word order, where necessary.

BEISPIEL Ich gebe meinem Freund den Tennisschläger.
Ich gebe ihn ihm.

1. Kannst du deiner Schwester den Computer zeigen?
2. Geben Sie der Dame die Bordkarte!
3. Hilfst du deinem Freund?
4. Ich kann den Rucksack nicht finden.
5. Wir kaufen unseren Eltern ein Geschenk.
6. Sende deiner Freundin eine E-Mail!
7. Die Angestellte gibt dem Fluggast die Auskunft.
8. Das Kleid passt deiner Freundin sehr gut.
9. Sie gibt den Leuten die Flugscheine.
10. Das Museum gefällt meiner Tante nicht besonders.

Was weißt du?

1. Was ich gern in den Ferien machen möchte. Imagine that you have two weeks off from school and enough money to go on a vacation trip. List five activities related to your trip such as where you would go, whom you would take along, what you would have to buy before your departure, what you would like to do once you get there and so on.
2. Das möchte ich gern sehen. Pick one area of Germany, Austria or Switzerland that you would like to see. From your school library, Internet or other sources (friends, neighbors), describe in English what is so unique about this area and why you would like to visit there.
3. Wie ist das Wetter? Using a newspaper or Internet weather site, describe the local and national weather conditions including temperatures and forecasts for various parts of the country.
4. Was wir auf der Party machten. Using the narrative past tense, briefly jot down what you had to buy for a real or imaginary party and what you did at the party.
5. Wer war dort? Someone you know undoubtedly went on a trip (camping, bus, train, plane) during the past year. Find out a few details and then write at least six sentences about this person's experience in the narrative past.